29. Animal welfare laws

One state has just passed a law that requires farmers to provide more space for egg-laying hens, breeding pigs and calves raised for veal. This will likely make farm animals more comfortable, while also increase the price of eggs and meat. Do you think laws like this to promote animal welfare are a good or a bad idea?

30. Animal legal representation

An animal-rights group is suing a horse's owner on behalf of the horse, claiming abuse. In general, people who mistreat animals can only be prosecuted by the government, and only if they are believed to violate animal-welfare laws. Do you think animals should or should not have the right to legal representation in the same way people do?
